

Twin Rivers Media Festival 08

Documentary Films

(film schedule subject to change)

■ Sun May 4 • 2-8pm

The Extraordinary Voyages of Jules Verne (70m, Foresthill, CA)

Honorable Mention

dir. by Philip Gardiner

The most famous of tales are dissected and the truth behind them discovered. From 'Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea' to 'Around the World in Eighty Days' and 'Journey to the Center of the Earth,' this film scrutinizes both the author and the meaning of his work.

Karearea: The Pine Falcon (49m, Auckland, New Zealand)

1st Place Outdoor

dir. by Sandy Crichton

Wildlife photographer George Chance spent the 1970's following and studying the New Zealand Falcon; now some thirty years later he is suffering from ill health and going blind.

Camp Woz: The Admirable Lunacy of Philanthropy (78m, LA, CA)

2nd Place

dir. by Jarrad Kritzstein,

Ten high level needs kids from New Jersey stay at the home of inventor of Apple Computer for the inaugural Dream Camp experience.

Finding Kraftland (75m, Hollywood, CA)

1st Place

sub. by Richard Kraft

After the death of his brother, a Hollywood agent drags his son through an obsessive quest to recapture his own childhood.

The Unseen Face of AIDS in Romania (21m, Hungary)

4th Place

dir. by Audrey Nesbitt

In Romania between 1987 to 1991 thousands of children were infected with HIV. Thousands of these children have died but for the many that remain, life is harsh and full of unwarranted hate and discrimination.

Woven Ways (50m, Stockton, NJ)

3rd Place

dir. by Linda Helm Krapf

Woven Ways shares the stories of the Navajo people, the land and livestock that sustain their culture and economy, and the environmental injustices that threaten their health and well-being.

Listen to Iran's People: A Call for Peace (28m, Berkeley, CA)

Honorable Mention

dir. by Margot Smith

Peace delegates from the Fellowship of Reconciliation visited Iran in March, 2007. The 23 were welcomed by Iran's vice president, and were told by all--students, professors and imams, and people on the street-- that they all want peace.

Para la comunidad, Desde la comunidad (14m, Bolivia)

Honorable Mention

dir. by Mark Kendall

Indigenous filmmakers in Bolivia travel around the country, screening their films and hosting discussions to promote change in the Constituent Assembly.

On the Down Low. (20m, Asheville, NC)

2nd Place Outdoor

dir. by Thomas Oliver

A breathtaking cinematic journey following three friend's kayak decent down America's most challenging class V white-water river.

Garden Insects (50m, Burkesville, KY)

3rd Place Outdoor

dir. by Chris Korrow

Chris Korrow's new 50 minute documentary film is loaded with fascinating facts about insect habitats and life cycles and offers viewers a film experience that is aesthetically pleasing, awe-inspiring, as well as informative.

■ Sat May 3
Experim./Narrative Films • 12:30pm-3pm
Animation Films • 3-6pm
Short Drama Films • 7-11pm

■ Sun May 4
Documentary Films • 2-8pm

THE COURTYARD GALLERY
9 Walnut Street • Downtown Asheville ashevillescourtyard.com • 273-3332